So a HUGE thank you to our wonderful donors for their indispensible support and to our INSPIRATIONAL partners and others for all they have done for us in 2013. We believe that this work can have an impact. It is a small beginning in Iran which we hope will grow with your help.

Although we have already raised over £100,000 towards our 2014 budget we still need another £150,000 to complete our planned projects. If you would like to contribute to the programs, please consider making a donation. The impact of your gift will be amplified by a generous donor who has offered to add $1 for every $2 of the first $50,000 contributed to NFS's 2014 programs.
